

Intermission application form (Coursework students only)

ADM05-V09/15

This form is not to be used by Monash College Students

This form is to be used to apply for a period of leave from your enrolled course. Intermission is normally granted for one year or two consecutive semesters.

Please refer to <https://my.monash.edu.au/askmonash/> for information on:

- the financial and academic implications of intermission
- the maximum intermission period permitted
- the time limit for completion of your course

If you wish to extend your intermission, you must re-apply and your faculty will determine whether an extension is possible. Your faculty may have requirements that you complete your degree within a specified timeframe. Check with your faculty to ascertain if your intermission will count towards the time limit for the completion of your course.

Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery students

If you are enrolled in the Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery, prior to lodging your application you must contact the faculty on +61 3 9905 2048 or mbbsstudentservices@monash.edu.

Please note intermission in these cases is not automatically granted.

International Students (Australian campus student visa holders)

According to government legislation – ESOS National Code of Practice 2007 - your intermission can be approved on compassionate or compelling grounds only. You must attach independent supporting documentation (originals or certified copies) to support your application (e.g. medical certificates, death certificate or a report from a registered psychologist). All documents must be provided in English or translated into English by a registered translation service.

Prior to lodging your application you are required to consult with Monash Connect staff on your home campus who will discuss with you the visa issues associated with intermission. Please ensure you have your supporting documentation with you. Monash Connect locations can be found at: <http://www.monash.edu.au/connect/>

If your application is approved the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) will be advised.

Fees

In order to receive a refund of fees, you must submit your intermission application by the relevant census date for each unit of study. For information about refunds please see - <http://monash.edu/fees/discounts-refunds/>

Closing dates

If your application for intermission is approved any enrolled units will be automatically discontinued. Depending on when you apply for intermission certain academic and financial penalties may apply. For more information, please see: <http://www.monash.edu.au/enrolments/dates/census.html>

Approval

Your application will be assessed by your course managing faculty and you will be notified of the outcome in writing.

You are considered to be a student of the university for the period of intermission. To maintain your enrolment after this time you must observe the scheduled re-enrolment dates for the following year and maintain your address details at all times. If you change your address during the period of intermission please update your address via the my.monash portal: <http://my.monash.edu.au>
